BENEFITS OF BECOMING A SPRING FESTIVAL SPONSOR OR ADVERTISER

On June 10, 2017, The Ebony Horsewomen Equestrian & Agricultural Center will kick-off its 12th Annual Spring Festival. The Ebony Horsewomen 12th Annual Spring Festival is a county fair in Hartford, Connecticut's historic 693-acre Keney Park and will attract residents from all over Hartford as well as a diverse array of food and artisan vendors.

Our last Spring Festival (in 2015) was a great success and attracted hundreds of attendees, who turned out with their families for a day of face-painting, food, crafts, and fun and was sponsored in part by the Greater Hartford Arts Council, which will also serve as this year's sponsor. This year, the 12th Annual Spring Festival will be even more spectacular and will feature live music, a petting zoo, vendors, hay rides, great food, obstacle courses, a Farmer's Market, exhibitions, and a mini horse show.

The 12th Annual Spring Festival is a wonderful family-friendly event that also supports Ebony Horsewomen's mission of empowering youth through equine and animal-assisted therapy and equine youth and educational programs. More importantly, net proceeds from this year's festival will provide camperships for urban youth.

Would you consider becoming one of our 2017 community sponsors or to advertise at this unique event? As a sponsor, your company and generosity will be amplified across all Ebony Horsewomen social media platforms and on our website, in print and on radio advertisements, and will be featured prominently during a live-stream of the event on Facebook.

This is a unique opportunity for advertisement of your business or company and you will help provide a wonderful camp experience for a deserving child.

We hope we can share our full presentation of sponsorship benefits with you soon and that we have inspired you to become a part of this exciting event.
